House Rules for Soul Café

1. Nobody under 18 years old admitted without being accompanied by an adult legal guardian.
2. Smoking is only allowed in designated outdoor areas. Please don't litter. There are "butt cans" in the smoking areas so please use them.
3. We reserve the right to refuse service or admission to anybody. Anybody asked to leave by a staff member shall leave immediately or answer to the police.
4. Nobody will be allowed to stay who is disruptive or suspected of being drunk or high. Staff decisions on this issue are final.
5. Nobody is allowed upstairs except during scheduled meeting times, or unless they have an appointment approved by staff.
6. Do not put your feet, backpacks, or other personal belongings on furniture in the café.
7. No gambling, public cursing, public displays of affection, loud arguments, physical violence, intimidation, ridicule, racial slurs, dirty jokes, name calling, or other disruptive behavior will be tolerated.
8. Groups meeting upstairs have great leeway in language and intensity of conversation, but downstairs and outside are strictly a family friendly environments.
9. The café is for members and patrons only. It is not a public hangout. A free membership may be available...check with a Soul Café staff member.
10. There are no refunds on membership dues or prorations or refunds allowed for unused portions. Memberships have no cash value.
11. Watch your kids! We are not responsible for your children. Meetings upstairs that are sponsored by outside groups MAY offer childcare in a space we provide.
12. Anybody presenting unwanted attention to another will be held accountable--be considerate of a person's privacy--ask permission to intrude into their life.
13. No soliciting shall be allowed anywhere on the premises.
14. Disciplinary measures may include being asked to leave for the day, having your membership revoked for the balance of the month, or being banned for a defined period of time.
15. If you witness the violation of a rule and don't bring it to the attention of staff, you are also subject to the same discipline as the person(s) breaking the rule(s).
16. No personal entertainment devices shall be used on the premises without the use of headphones that prevent others from being disturbed.
17. No entertainment media, book, magazine, music, movies or broadcasts that are rated for adults or "Restricted" from children shall be utilized on the premises.
18. Any vehicles left overnight in any parking place shall be towed and stored at the expense of the driver and/or vehicle owner.
19. Please guard your personal valuables. We are not responsible for any personal losses.
